
Nazim, the star of A—level CRMV

Current parliament deputy speaker, Ahmed Nazim who also served as deputy speaker in the past is one of the most notable and successful politicians in the Maldivian history. At a young age, he started learning in which he succeeded A-level, getting the first place from the whole Maldives in the A-level.

Nazim was born November 1968. He has served several positions in the Government of the Maldives. In 2005, he was appointed as Minister of State for Ministry of Higher Education, Employment and Social Security under Minister Dr. Ibrahim Hassan and Director of Maldives Transport and Contracting Company (MTCC) from 2002 to 2005. Furthermore, He served as Director of Ministry of Youth and Sports, Senior Engineer of State Electric Company (STELCO) from 1996 to 2001. He was appointed as a Engineer at Maldives Electricity Board in 1992 and left the position in 1996.

Nazim served as Vice President of parties, Dhivehi Rayyithunge Party, People's Alliance and Progressive Party of Maldives. He was first elected as a member of parliament in 2000, as a member for Meemu Atoll. He further in the Majilis served as Special Member of the Citizen's Majlis.